

DESTINATION

VALLEJO, CALIFORNIA

Located in the San Francisco Bay area, Vallejo, California, is the largest city in Solano County. Its rich history includes being the first permanent home of California's state government and the first and most famous naval ship building and repair facility on the west coast. Vallejo's past can be seen all around the city: in the downtown area, in the heritage and historic districts and near the Vallejo waterfront.

Staying active in Vallejo is easy, as the city is home to many sports, parks and recreation opportunities. Golf at one of seven area courses. Visit the Greater Vallejo Recreation District for adult league sports, dance, martial arts and much more. Swim, bowl or play tennis, bocci, basketball, soccer, or rugby at one of its many sports and recreation venues.

With incredible cities like San Francisco, Oakland and Napa close by, there is never a dull moment living in beautiful Vallejo. Cable cars, wineries, the Bay, Alcatraz, the Golden Gate Bridge, Fisherman's Warf...the list is endless for sites to explore in one of America's most beloved, culturally rich and historic parts of the country.
